Excerpt from the

MINUTES OF THE 13TH REGULAR SESSION OF THE SANGGUNIANG PANLUNGSOD OF BAYBAY CITY, LEYTE HELD ON APRIL 13, 2015 AT THE SP SESSION HALL, BAYBAY CITY, LEYTE.

Ordinance No. 05
Series 2015

AN ORDINANCE ENACTING THE BAYBAY CITY'S CHILDREN CODE OF 2015

Sponsored by Councilor TERESITA J. VELOSO

WHEREAS, by accepting the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, the country committed itself to undertake all appropriate measures to ensure that the child is protected against all forms of discrimination or punishment on the basis of the status, activities, expressed opinions, or beliefs of the child's parents, legal guardians, or family members.

WHEREAS, with the ratification, the Philippines was entrusted with the mission to undertake all appropriate legislative, administrative, and other measures for the implementation of the rights recognized in the Convention.

WHEREAS, the Philippines formulated its vision for children and articulated a roadmap for child protection and development in The Philippine National Strategic Framework for Plan Development for Children (2000-2025) or Child 21.

WHEREAS, new national laws affecting children have been enacted, including, among others, the Anti-Trafficking in Persons Act of 2003 (Republic Act No. 9208), An Act Providing for the Elimination of the Worst Forms of Child Labor and Affording Stronger Protection for the Working Child (Republic Act No. 9231), the Anti-Violence Against Women and their Children Act of 2004 (Republic Act No. 9262), the Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act of 2006 (Republic Act No. 9344) and the Anti-Child Pornography Act (Republic Act No. 9775) and the Anti-Bullying Act of 2013 (Republic Act No. 10627).

WHEREAS, in response to the challenge posed by the national government and in its desire to protect the rights of the children within its jurisdiction, the Baybay City Council enacted, among others, the following ordinances to safeguard the interests of the children:

- a. Ordinance No. 005, S. 2013 (An Ordinance Regulating the Operation of Video and Computer Games in the City of Baybay)
- b. Ordinance No. 006, S. 2008 (An Ordinance Instituting the Comprehensive Drug Ordinance of the City of Baybay, Amending the Anti-Illegal Drugs Ordinance of 2003)

- c. Ordinance No. 05, S. 2002 (An Ordinance Prohibiting Any Person from Sniffing Rugby, Solvents or Similar Substance and Regulating the Sale of Said Substance in All Business Establishments in Baybay, Leyte)
- d. Ordinance No. 004, S. 2001 (An Ordinance Regulating the Time of Dispensing and/or Selling of Liquor, Wine and Other Alcoholic Drinks and Providing Penalties for Violation Thereof)
- e. Ordinance No. 99-004 (An Ordinance Prohibiting the Smoking of Cigarettes, Cigar, Pipe or Tobacco Inside Public Building and Places, and Inside Public Utility Vehicles and Tricycles for Hire in the Municipality of Baybay, Leyte and Providing the Penalties for the Violation Thereof)

WHEREAS, in recognition of and building on the achievements of ordinances affecting the different aspects of the development of children as well as their general welfare, and in light of the developments, current issues, persistent problems and emerging concerns on children, there is a need to compile and strengthen local legislations to ensure a child-friendly Baybay City.

NOW THEREFORE, be it ordained by the Sangguniang Panlungsod of Baybay City, Leyte, that:

ARTICLE I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Title. – This ordinance shall be known and cited as the “THE BAYBAY CITY’S CHILDREN CODE OF 2015”.

Section 2. Policies, Principles and Purposes.—

A. Declaration of Policies and Principles. – The State recognizes the vital role of the youth in nation building and shall promote and protect their physical, moral, spiritual, intellectual and social well-being. It shall inculcate in the youth patriotism and nationalism and encourage their involvement in public and civic affairs. It also recognizes the rights of children under the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and the national laws of this country.

The City Government of Baybay, Leyte recognizes the importance of effectively promoting, fully enhancing, and institutionalizing the survival, development, participation and protection rights of the children within the framework of advancing their general welfare in furtherance of integrated, sustainable and equitable development. It believes in a holistic protection and development of all children through a strong partnership between and among government agencies, non-government organizations (NGOs) and the private sector, serving with the highest degree of professionalism and competence in an atmosphere of unity, solidarity and teamwork. It is hereby declared that it shall adopt the following policies and principles:

1. It recognizes the inherent rights of the child to survival, development, protection, and participation in accordance with the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and the relevant Philippine laws on children. As such, the City Government of Baybay, Leyte adopts the following core principles of the U.N. Convention and shall uphold the same principles in all matters concerning or affecting children:

1.1 Non-Discrimination. – The rights of the child shall be respected without discrimination of any kind, irrespective of the child's or his or her parent's or legal guardian's race, colour, sex, gender, language, religion, political or other opinion, national, ethnic or social origin, property, disability, birth, or other status;

1.2 Survival and development – Every child has the inherent right to life, and the survival and development of the child shall be insured to the maximum extent possible; and

1.3 Respect for the views of the child – Any child capable of forming a view has the right to express such views freely in all matters affecting him or her, and the child's views shall be given due weight in accordance with age and maturity.

2. It is committed to provide quality service which will make the City an enabling environment for children to grow and develop their full potential at every stage of development and where children are protected by a responsive government from all forms of abuse, neglect, cruelty, exploitation, discrimination, and other conditions prejudicial to their development;

3. It shall uphold the sanctity of family life and to protect and strengthen the family as a basic autonomous social institution; to equally protect the life of the mother and the child; and to support the natural and primary right and duty of parents in the rearing of the youth for civic efficiency and the development of moral character;

4. It shall establish and integrate affirmative action as a strategy and gender equality as a framework in planning and implementing the City's budget, programs, services and activities with full recognition of the special needs of girls and of children with disabilities;

5. It shall uphold the principle of inter-generational responsibility such that every generation shall recognize its responsibility to the next generations to preserve the rhythm and harmony of nature for the full enjoyment of a balanced and healthful ecology for the children of all generations; and

6. It shall pursue and strengthen its community approach to uphold the rights of the child through the Baybay City Council for the Protection of Children and the Barangay Council for the Protection of Children in partnership with key stakeholders, including, but not limited to, families, local communities, non-government organizations, civil society organizations, church, private organizations, schools, local government units, national government, mass media and children.

B. Purposes. – This code is enacted with the following purposes:

1. To ensure the protection of children against all forms of abuse and exploitation;

2. To advocate for children's rights and promote their welfare and development;

3. To ensure that children's rights are given priority attention by the government, business, and civil society;
4. To improve the quality of life of Baybayanon children enabling them to fully develop their potentials and participate in community life and nation building.

ARTICLE III: ROLES AND FUNCTIONS OF VARIOUS SECTORS

Section 1. The Family. – The family is the central unit responsible for the primary socialization of children which is important in the prevention of children's rights violations. Governmental and social efforts to preserve the integrity of the family, including the extended family, should be pursued.

Section 2. Primary Rights of Parents. – The family has primary responsibility of nurturing and protecting children from infancy to adolescence. Introduction of children to the culture, values and norms of their society shall begin in the family. The parents shall give the right to the company of their children and, in relation to all other persons or institutions dealing with children's development, the primary right and obligation to provide for their upbringing.

Section 3. Rights under the Family Code. – Parents shall continue to exercise the rights mentioned in Articles 209 to 237 of the Family code over the person and property of their children.

Section 4. Right to Discipline Children. – Parents have the right to discipline their children as may be necessary for the formation of their good character, provided it does not fall under the prohibited acts mentioned in this Code and other pertinent national laws. Parents may require from their children obedience to just and reasonable rules, suggestions and admonitions.

Section 5. General Duties of Parents. – Parents shall the following general duties toward their children:

1. To give them affection, companionship and understanding;
2. To extend to them the benefits of moral guidance, self-discipline and religious instruction;
3. To supervise their activities, including their recreation;
4. To inculcate in them the value of industry, prudence and self-reliance;
5. To stimulate their interest in civic affairs, teach them the duties of citizenship, and develop their commitment to their country;
6. To advise them properly on any matter affecting their development and well-being;
7. To always set a good example;
8. To provide them with adequate support, as defined in Article 194 of the Family Code; and
9. To administer their property, if any, according to their best interest, subject to the provisions of Article 225 to 27 of the Family Code.

Section 6. Separation of Children from their Families. – Every effort shall be made to prevent the separation of children from their families. Whenever children are separated from their families owing to force majeure or in their own best interest, arrangements shall be made for appropriate alternative family care or institutional placement, with due regard being paid to the desirability of continuity in children's upbringing in their own cultural milieu. Extended families, relatives and community institutions shall be given support to help meet the special needs of orphaned, displaced and abandoned children. Efforts must be made to ensure that no child is treated as an outcast of society.

Section 7. Role of Women. – Women in their various roles play a critical role in the well-being of children. Efforts for the enhancement of women's status and their roles in development must begin with girl children. The enhancement of the status of women and their equal access to education, training, credit reproductive health, and other extension services constitute a valuable contribution to a nation's social and economic development. To achieve that and to prepare women for their various roles, equal opportunity shall be provided for the girl children for them to benefit from the health, education and other basic services for their full growth.

Section 8. Role of Fathers. – Fathers play a vital role in their children's lives, in the nurturing and rearing of children at home. Policies and legislation shall be enacted and programs shall be designed and implemented for the inclusion of their critical role. Fathers shall be equally responsible in the rearing and nurturing of the children in the home and be their role models. Equal opportunity shall be provided the boy children for them to benefit from the health, nutrition, education and other basic services for their full growth.

Section 9. Role of Educational Institutions. – Educational institutions shall work together with parents, community organizations and agencies concerned with the activities of children and youth. Educational institutions shall incorporate into their curriculum a subject on the rights and responsibilities of children, subject to the guidelines set by the Department of Education (DepEd) and the Commission on Higher Education (CHED).

Section 10. Role of the Mass Media. – The mass media shall be aware of their extensive social role and responsibility, as well as their influence, in broadcasts and communications relating to children. They should use their power to protect the rights of children by relaying consistent message through a balanced approach. Special attention should be given to effective anti-drug awareness campaigns and delinquency prevention.

Section 11. Role of Judicial Institutions. – In the administration of justice, courts, prosecutors, administrative agencies and other actors shall ensure that the rights of children are protected and promoted at all times. They shall conduct programs and activities geared towards enhancing children's rights.

Section 12. Role of the Local Government Unit. – The City Government of Baybay, Leyte shall come up with comprehensive programs for children and allocate appropriate budgets for their implementation.

Section 13. Role of the City Council for the Protection of Children (CCPC). – This council shall, in addition to their existing duties and functions, coordinate with and assist the LGU in coming up with comprehensive programs for children and be the primary body to oversee the implementation of such programs.

Section 14. Role of the Sangguniang Panlungsod Committee on Women and Family. – The Sangguniang Panlungsod Committee on Women and Family shall actively involve itself in the formulation and implementation of prevention and protection programs in the community. It shall coordinate with the CCPC for this purpose.

ARTICLE IV: PROGRAMS AND SERVICES FOR CHILDREN

Section 1. Comprehensive Program for Children. – The City Government of Baybay, Leyte shall within one (1) year from the effectivity of this Code and every three (3) years thereafter, formulate a comprehensive program for children covering at least a three-year period. Such program shall include prevention, protection as well as rehabilitation programs for children, and shall emphasize prevention of children's rights violations to include prevention of child abuse, juvenile delinquency, drug addiction, and other children's problems.

Section 2. The Community Approach. – The community approach shall be given special attention in the formulation of the comprehensive program for children. This involves addressing community-wide issues and improving the overall environment of the neighborhood in order to prevent violations of children's rights through mobilization of human resources within the community. Volunteerism among members of the community to assist in the implementation of the programs shall be encouraged. Community based services and programs which respond to the special needs, problems, interests and concerns of children and which offer appropriate counseling and guidance to children and their families should be developed, or strengthened where they exist.

Section 3. Process in Formulating Comprehensive Children's Programs. – The process in coming up with Comprehensive Children's Programs shall be participatory and consultative. The City Government of Baybay, Leyte, in coordination with the local council for the protection of children, shall call on all sectors concerned, particularly child-focused institutions, NGOs, people's organizations, youth organizations, children's council, educational institutions and government agencies involved with children's concerns like the City Social Welfare and Development Office (CSWDO), City Health Office (CHO), Philippine National Police (PNP), Sangguniang Panlungsod (SP), and the Department of Education (DepEd) among other government agencies to participate in the planning process. The City Government of Baybay, Leyte should see to it that the children and youth themselves participate in the formulation, development and implementation of these programs, particularly in the identification of their respective needs and concerns.

Section 4. Periodic Review and Assessment of the Comprehensive Children's Programs. – The Comprehensive Children's Programs shall be reviewed and assessed yearly by the City Government of Baybay, Leyte in coordination with the City Council for the Protection of Children.

Section 5.
